○ Teaching and Learning Process

The details of the academic calendar showing the academic activities of the session are provided by the department of higher education of state government/ university and are displayed to the students through the notice board and also through the college website. The time-table of classes is prepared by the college committee and lesson plan in a subject/paper/unit is prepared by every faculty at the beginning of each session. The daily progress is also maintained in the form of a teaching diary and verified by the head of the department and then by the principal. The teaching process comprises: Classroom Learning, PowerPoint Presentation, Assignments, Seminars and Web based resources.

- A copy of the syllabus is maintained for students by each department. Outline of the course schedule and topics to be taught by the teacher, is provided to the student prior to the commencement of classes. Students are evaluated regularly through internal tests, assignments and seminars.
- Learning is made more student-centric by encouraging them to prepare a detailed note/report on their seminar/ project topics and discuss their seminar topics/ project reports through power point presentations under the supervision of faculty members. Besides, workshops, group discussions, field study, participation in quiz, Poster and Model Presentation, participation in extension activities, etc are also included in the academic practices. The college has a rich, well equipped and automated library with N-list and internet facilities. Different departments have their own departmental libraries for PG students.
- The college is always ready to invite resource persons and experts to the campus to give the students and staff maximum exposure to the latest innovations in the subject. This year two separate national level seminars were organized by the Dept. of English and the Dept. of History in which stalwarts from all across India visited our campus to showcase their expertise in English literature and History.

Social Learning

Apart from the curriculum the college students also get exposure of a number of extracurricular activities under the aegis of NSS and Red Cross; the students partake in activities concerning health and environment awareness, gender equality, citizen empowerment and voter awareness, fight against superstitions, substance abuse, water conservation etc.

Examination System :

Details of various courses, syllabus, examination pattern and examination process are provided to the students at the time of admission through admission brochure and respective departments. The dates of internal exams, unit tests, assignments and seminars are declared well before through notice. The dates of UG and PG 'yearly examinations are declared by the affiliating Bilaspur University at least one month before the commencement of the examination.

Due to the unprecedented situation arising out the Covid-19 pandemic organizing the annual examination was a serious

Result:

Despite being situated in a scheduled area and catering to the needs of the socially underprivileged classes the college students perform very well in the yearly and semester examinations due to the constant monitoring and mentoring by the Result evaluation Cell under the aegis of IQAC of the college. In the last session approximately 80 % of graduate students and more than 85% of PG students were successful in the final year examinations.
